

Chi Kong CHO (曹志光)
Barrister, LLB, London FHKIoD
ckcho@polyu.edu.hk

Building on his experiential foundation of investigations and enforcement, In 1991, C.K. became qualified as a UK and Hong Kong Barrister and was appointed Head of ICAC's Legal Research and Management Services Unit where he was responsible for designing fraud risk programs with internal control policies and procedures relating to human resources management, corporate security, personal data privacy and investigation of internal complaints.

Since 2000, he has served as an adviser on legal and compliance matters for companies in Hong Kong and London. In addition to providing in-house legal advisory work, C.K. specializes in fraud investigation, litigation support, corporate governance and assets management.

C.K. Cho delivers post-graduate courses in corporate governance and regulatory framework at the School of Accounting and Finance.

Professor C.K. Cho is a Fellow Member for the Hong Kong Institute of Directors and former President of the Hong Kong Chapter of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. He has lectured at Universities in Hong Kong and Mainland China and conducts training for companies and professional organizations across South East on prevention and detection of fraud and general compliance.